

Western Kentucky University

TopSCHOLAR®

WKU Archives Records

WKU Archives

1969

UA3/3/7 Miscellaneous Presidential Photographs

WKU President's Office - Thompson

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.wku.edu/dlsc_ua_records

Part of the Higher Education Administration Commons, Leadership Studies Commons, Photography Commons, and the Sports Studies Commons

Recommended Citation

WKU President's Office - Thompson, "UA3/3/7 Miscellaneous Presidential Photographs" (1969). WKU Archives Records. Paper 8486.

https://digitalcommons.wku.edu/dlsc_ua_records/8486

This Other is brought to you for free and open access by TopSCHOLAR®. It has been accepted for inclusion in WKU Archives Records by an authorized administrator of TopSCHOLAR®. For more information, please contact topscholar@wku.edu.

DR. KELLY THOMPSON

MISCELLANEOUS PRESIDENTIAL PHOTOGRAPHS

1955 - 1969

President Thompson greets Dr. W. B. Haley, President of the Western Alumni Association, and other members of the Board of Directors, August 8, 1966. Reading left to right: W. B. Birdwell, Patrick McNeil, Bradford Mutchler, Dr. Thompson, Dr. Haley, James Moss, and Lee Robertson, Director of the WKU Alumni Association.

President Thompson and members of the Board of Regents at meeting on June 1, 1965. Reading left to right, front row: President Thompson, Maxey B. Harlin, Dr. J. T. Gilbert, and Dr. Harry M. Sparks. Back row: Hugh Poland, Douglas Keen, Bemis Lawrence, and Dr. Gerald Edds

President Lyndon B. Johnson delivers the Centennial Founders Day address at the University of Kentucky on February 22, 1965. President Thompson is second from left. On extreme right is Governor Edward T. Breathitt.

President Thompson chats with Jesse Stuart
(right) and Coach E. A. Diddle following Mr.
Stuart's address in the University Lecture
Series on August 6, 1966

President Thompson was "Knighthood" at the Coronation Ball on the evening of April 27, 1962 in Louisville. The Ball opened the 1962 Kentucky Derby Festival

President Thompson and members of the Board of Regents following meeting in Regents Conference Room on August 4, 1967. Reading left to right: Douglas Keen, Dr. Thompson (standing), Dr. C. P. Embry, Maxey B. Harlin, Dr. Harry Sparks, Vice President Dero G. Downing and Hugh Poland

All members of the Board of Regents were present for the Day of Commemoration and Dedication on October 14, 1967. Reading left to right, front row: Dr. W. R. McCormack, Dr. Harry Sparks, Dr. Chalmer P. Embry, Dr. J. T. Gilbert. Back row: President Thompson, Dr. Gerald Edds, Mr. Douglas Keen, and Mr. Hugh Poland

Acting President Thompson presents a check for $119, 258.67 to Roland Fitch, president of the Bowling Green Bank and Trust Company, to retire the indebtedness on Cherry Hall, August 12, 1955

President Thompson carves his fourth anniversary cake at the annual meeting of the Muhlenberg County Alumni Association, October 22, 1959. Left to right: Thelma Hendricks, president; Dr. Thompson; Grace Wells, vice president; and Marjorie Topmiller, secretary-treasurer

Photograph made at annual meeting in Chicago of the American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education, February, 1963. Left to right: Dr. James P. Cornette, President of West Texas State University and former Western faculty member; Dr. Glenn Kendall, President of Chico State College and Western graduate; Dr. Edward Pomeroy, Executive Secretary of AACTE; Dr. Paul G. Chandler, President of Clarion State College and Western graduate; and President Thompson

Kentucky college presidents participate in a symposium on the value of education before a Farm and Home convention at Memorial Coliseum, November 15, 1956. Left to right: Dr. Robert R. Martin, Superintendent of Public Instruction; President W. F. O'Donnell, Eastern; President Ralph Woods, Murray; President Frank G. Dickey, University of Kentucky; President Adron Doran, Morehead; President Thompson; and President R. B. Atwood, Kentucky State College

J. T. Orendorf is presenting President Thompson with a plaque from the Industrial Foundation in Bowling Green at a dinner given by the Chamber of Commerce, July 29, 1963

Lt. Governor Harry Lee Waterfield, Mrs. Waterfield, and Mrs. Thompson are presented to the audience at half time of the Western-Murray basketball game, February 22, 1964

First planning session of the Kelly Thompson
Science Building, April, 1958

Mr. John Richardson, member of Board of Regents, Dean F. C. Grise, and Acting President Thompson following commencement exercises in August, 1955

President Thompson's family at the time of election to the presidency, October 17, 1955. Left to right: Kelly David, President Thompson, Patty, Mrs. Thompson, and Hardin

6-29-68
President and Mrs. Thompson visiting with Western students in the cast of the "Stephen Foster Story," Bardstown--June 29, 1968

First official photograph of President and
Mrs. Thompson at their new home at 1526
State Street--October, 1966

Following dinner at the Seelbach Hotel in Louisville at which time President Thompson was presented with the "Kentuckian Of the Year" award by the Kentucky Press Association, January 21, 1961. Left to right: Hardin, President Thompson, Mrs. Thompson, and Kelly David

President Thompson watching the development of the renovation of the Old Fort area,
September, 1968

Luncheon scene, Day of Commemoration and Dedication, October 14, 1967. Governor
Edward T. Breathitt stands between President and Mrs. Thompson

President Thompson hosts luncheon for Kiwaniis International President Harold Heimbaugh and Mrs. Heimbaugh, March 1, 1969.
Left to right, seated: Miss Georgia Bates,
Mr. Ted Osborn, Mrs. Heimbaugh, President
Thompson, Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. Thos. W.
Hines; standing, Mr. Uel J. Smith, Mr. Jack

Sagabiel, Mrs. Sagabiel, Mrs. Max Wheat,
Mr. Wheat, Mrs. Zane Cunningham, Mr.
Cunningham, and Judge Thomas W. Hines

Members of the Board of Regents and administrators following Board meeting on February 15, 1969. Left to right, front row: Harry Largen, Dr. Raymond L. Cravens, Dr. H. E. Shadowen, Miss Georgia Bates, Mr. Paul E. Gerard, III, Dr. J. T. Gilbert, and Dr. W. R. McCormack. Back row: Mr. Dero G. Downing, Dr. Chalmer P. Embry, Mr. Douglas Keen, Mr. Hugh Poland, Mr. Albert G. Ross, and President Thompson

Photograph made following dinner hosted by President and Mrs. Thompson in honor of Mary and Harold Helm of New York City, May 31, 1968, when Mr. Helm was the commencement speaker.
 Left to right, front row: Mr. Blakey Helm, Mrs.
 Tom Helm, Mrs. Thompson, Mr. Helm, Mrs.
 Helm, Mrs. Blakey Helm, Mr. Tom Helm;
 second row: Regent W. R. McCormack, Mrs.
 Elizabeth Carroll, Mrs. Sarah Rodes Graham,
 Miss Margie Helm, President Thompson, Mrs. H. E.
 Shadowen, Mrs. Dero G. Downing, Mrs. Raymond
 L. Cravens, Dr. Raymond L. Cravens; back row:
 Mr. Dero G. Downing, Regent Albert G. Ross,
 Regent J. T. Gilbert, Student Regent William
 Menser, Regent Chalmer P. Embry, and Regent
 H. E. Shadowen

President Thompson gets a kiss from Mrs. Thompson at the student convocation on May 26, 1969, when tribute was paid to President Thompson who, on May 21, had announced his plans to step down from the presidency of Western

President Thompson and Georgia Bates, secretary to the Board, are pictured with members of the Board of Regents following a meeting on June 11, 1969. Left to right: Douglas Keen, Miss Bates, President Thompson, Wendell P. Butler; standing, Paul E. Gerard, III, Dr. J. T. Gilbert, Dr. Chalmer P. Embry, Albert G. Ross, Hugh Poland, Dr. W. R. McCormack, and Dr. H. E. Shadowen

Members of the Board of Regents join President Thompson in the President's Office following the Board meeting on August 22, 1969. Left to right: Paul E. Gerard, III, Hugh Poland, Albert G. Ross, Dr. Chalmer P. Embry, Douglas Keen, President Thompson, Dr. W. R. McCormack, Dr. J. T. Gilbert, and Dr. H. E. Shadowen

President Thompson, Vice President Raymond L. Cravens, and Vice President Dero G. Downing peruse University publications by faculty and staff members at Western Kentucky University, February 2, 1969

President Thompson and Governor Edward T. Breathitt head the procession, Day of Commemoration and Dedication, October 14, 1967

Photograph following commencement exercises on June 3, 1963, at which Dr. Chester Travelstead, Dean of the University of New Mexico, was the speaker. Left to right: Regent Douglas Keen, President Thompson, Mrs. Nelle G. Travelstead (mother of the speaker) and Dr. Travelstead

President Thompson delivering the dedicatory
address at the Vine Grove Elementary School,
April 7, 1963

President Thompson serving as moderator at special session on higher education during meeting of Kentucky Education Association, April, 1960

Ground-breaking ceremonies, East and North Halls, November, 1955. Among those shown in the foreground are (left to right) E. H. Canon, Florence Schneider, Mayor Cliff Lampkin, President Thompson (with shovel), Clarence Shaub, Frank Cain, Judge John B. Rodes, Francis Gonce, Rev. Walter I. Munday, and L. T. Smith

President Thompson receives a standing ovation at chapel assembly following his first address as president of Western, October, 1955

Faculty meeting and planning conference for the 1960-61 school year held in Snell Hall
Auditorium, September 9, 1960

Dr. Ward Sumpter presents President Thompson with a copy of Western's first proposal to the National Science Foundation, July, 1957. Looking on are Dr. L. F. Jones (left) and Dr. H. L. Stephens (right). The proposal for an In-Service Institute for High School Teachers, $5,250, was approved by NSF.

Approximately 1,500 persons assembled on Sunday afternoon, October 15, 1961, for the dedication of the Kelly Thompson Science Building.

Governor Bert T. Combs delivers the dedicatory address at the Kelly Thompson
Science Building on October 15, 1961

President Thompson and Governor Bert Combs are served at the reception following the dedication of the Academic-Athletic Building--E. A. Diddle Arena on December 7, 1963. Governor Combs was the speaker.

Presentation to President Thompson of the football used in the Murray game which ended the season and gave Western the OVC championship in 1963. Making the presentation is Joe Bugel, captain of the team. Looking on is Coach Nick Denes.

Presentation by President Thompson of a scholarship check from the College Heights Foundation to a Western student. Mr. A. J. Thurman, Executive Secretary-Treasurer of the Foundation looks on--April, 1964

President Thompson and his secretary, Georgia
Bates--November 18, 1964

Homecoming, October 17, 1967. Among those joining President and Mrs. Thompson in the official box for the Morehead game, the final game played in the old stadium, were Mrs. Mack Sisk and Field McChesney (seated with the Thompsons) and Arnold Winkenhofer and Mr. Sisk (back)

Chrys Crowder, a Western student (center), stars in THE STEPHEN FOSTER STORY as Jeanie, "Our Jeanie with the Light Brown Hair." President and Mrs. Thompson visit in Bardstown with her and other members of the student body and faculty who are in the production--June 29, 1968

Governor Edward T. Breathitt presents President Thompson with the first "Kentucky Distinguished Citizen Award" at a campus-wide assembly on October 18, 1965. The occasion also marked the tenth anniversary of Dr. Thompson's tenure as president of Western.

Ted Hornback, Athletic Director, presents
President Thompson with the all OVC sports trophy for 1968.

The Four-County Alumni Club presented President and Mrs. Thompson with gifts at the annual meeting in Owensboro on November 9, 1965. The plaque read, "In appreciation for 10 years of dedicated service as President and First Lady of Western."

Dr. Harry M. Sparks, Chairman of the Board of Regents, presents Dr. Thompson with a resolution at the luncheon on the "Day of Commemoration and Dedication," October 14, 1967, which coincided with Dr. Thompson's twelfth anniversary as President of Western

Left to right, seated: Vice President Downing, Mrs. Downing, and Governor Breathitt. Standing, Dr. Sparks, President Thompson, Mrs. Thompson, and Miss Joann Clark, "Miss Kentucky, a Western student.

President and Mrs. Thompson are escorted to the Western-Eastern basketball game on January 14, 1967, by members of the TKA fraternity.

A gift of silver is presented by the University to the Home Management House on May 19, 1967. Receiving the gift is Mrs. Bertha Pate Jones, Director (extreme left) and two senior home economics majors. Vice President Downing joins President Thompson in the presentation.

Dr. Paz G. Ramos, intern in higher education administration from the University of the Philippines, brings a bit of her native land to her desk at Western. With her are President Thompson and Dr. Kenneth Barker, Associate Secretary of AACTE--September 28, 1965

Western hosts the meeting of the Council on Public Higher Education on October 2, 1967. Reading left to right, front row: Tommy Preston; Ted Gilbert, Executive Secretary; William H. Abell; Marvin Wrather, acting president of Murray; second row, President Carl Hill, Kentucky State; Herman Robinson, Business Manager of Kentucky State; Dr. Albert B. Harris; O. L. McElroy; Lisle Baker; back row, Harry LaViers; President Thompson; President Adron Doran, Morehead; Edward F. Prichard; President John W. Oswald, University of Kentucky; and President Robt. R. Martin, Eastern

Five members of the Board of Regents were present for the dedication of the Kelly Thompson Science Building on October 15, 1961. Left to right: President Thompson, Bemis Lawrence, Douglas Keen, Hugh Poland, Maxey B. Harlin, and Dr. W. Gerald Edds

Eight hundred faculty and staff members and guests are hosted by the Board of Regents and President of Western at a dinner on September 21, 1965, which marked the formal opening of the Ballroom of the Paul L. Garrett Student Center.

Faculty, administrative staff, and other
employees of Western Kentucky State
College, September, 1964

Miss Etta J. Runner, upon relinquishing her duties in the fall of 1960 as secretary to the Faculty Athletic Committee, is presented with a W Club Award

Mrs. Elizabeth Walz, hostess at the Faculty House, is recognized as "queen of the swimming pool," summer, 1961

Picture taken at President's Home as undefeated Western accepts invitation to the Tangerine Bowl to be played in Orlando, Florida, Dec. 28, 1963. Left to right: Coach Nick Denes, Elks Lodge exalted ruler Jim Gaines of Orlando, Ky. Public Service Commission Chairman J. David Francis, Bowl Chairman Jack Morgan, and President Thompson

President Thompson enjoys the fellowship of colleagues and friends at the annual fish fry held at Mammoth Cave, Summer, 1956. Among those in picture are L. T. Smith, left foreground; President Thompson, right foreground, seated; and Coach E. A. Diddle, standing

President Thompson congratulates new president of TDEA, Mrs. Claude Hightower. Left to right: Dero G. Downing, Darrell Carter, President Thompson, Mrs. Hightower, Mrs. Bernadine Steele, and Dr. W. M. Willey

Governor Louie B. Nunn, speaker at the June 6, 1969, commencement program, is the recipient of the WKU Alumni Association Award.

President Thompson is presented with an engraved silver tray in recognition of "distinguished service to the University." The presentation by Dr. John D. Minton, Dean of the Graduate College, followed commencement exercises on June 6, 1969. Dean Robert G. Cochran looks on.

Miss Virginia Allen Marker (second from left) and Miss Carmen Willoughby (second from right) are recipients of the Ogden Trustees' Awards at the May 31, 1968, commencement. Mr. Harold Helm, New York City, extreme left, was the speaker. Herbert J. Smith, right, Ogden Regent and Trustee, made the presentations. President Thompson is in the center.

Signing of the contract for construction of the Academic-Athletic Building--E. A. Diddle Arena, November 16, 1961. Left to right, front row: David Pritchett, Commissioner of Finance; S. J. Clark, Contractor; Maurice Carpenter, State Director of Purchasing; back row, President Thompson; B. B. Strange, Purchasing; and Billy Smith, Business Manager

Ground-breaking ceremonies for the Academic-Athletic Building-E. A. Diddle Arena were held on Founders Day, November 17, 1961

Faculty, administrative staff, and other
employees of Western Kentucky State
College, September, 1961

LEFT:

Installation of electronic time system on the campus, 1957. Left to right: Billy Smith, Boyd Smith, L. T. Smith, Cornelius Goins,
and President Thompson

President and Mrs. Thompson enjoy a visit from Mr. and Mrs. John Goldner of New York City in July, 1968. Mr. Goldner is head of the basketball department at Madison Square Garden.

Photograph of portrait of Hardin Thompson, son of President and Mrs. Kelly Thompson, which was presented to the University by the 1968 Senior Class and placed in the Hardin Thompson Planetarium (see right)

Hardin Planetarium, named for Hardin Cherry Thompson, son of President and Mrs. Kelly Thompson, whose death occurred on October 5, 1963, during his senior year. Facility dedicated on October 14, 1967

Final inspection, Kelly Thompson Science Building, June, 1961. Left to right, front row: Carl Hancock, David Pritchett, Frank Cain, Ben Johnson; second row: Sanford Perry, Leo Miller, Al Twaryonas;

third row: Brucker Miller, Bud Koenig, Chas. Wade, L. T. Smith; fourth row: A. Poyser, Elisha McCormack, Tommy Waldron, Russell Lambert; back row: President Thompson, Al Cron, Owen Lawson

President Thompson cuts the ribbon at the opening of the College Heights Laundry, January, 1962. To his left are Judith Moore, Dean of Women; Frank Cain, Architect; and Jas. M. Hill, member of Foundation Board. Student at left is unidentified. In background are Robert Cochran, student Bob Denhardt, and A. J. Thurman. Mrs. Sue Beard, dormitory director, is in extreme background.

Final inspection, West Hall; April, 1960. Left to right: L. T. Smith, Brucker Miller, President Thompson, Emmett Thomas, Cecil Whittaker, Carl Hancock, Charles Henry, Ike Jenkins, Jewel Clay, Sanford Perry, Walter Scott Roberts, Leo Miller, Billy Smith, Owen Lawson, Booker Ramsey

Justice Tom C. Clark of the Supreme Court of the United States visits with President Thompson on his two-day trip to the Western campus, March 31 and April 1, 1967, for the chartering of Delta Tau Delta Fraternity

The oldest building on the Western campus, former storage house for Potter College, is razed in 1968 to enable beautification of Fort area to be completed.

Officials of the L&N Railroad and Harold Huffman, Executive Secretary of the Chamber of Commerce (center right), being taken on a tour of the Western campus by President Thompson, May, 1963

President Thompson is photographed with new faculty members, July, 1958. In addition to personnel for the summer session are Dr. Raymond L. Cravens (to left of President Thompson) and Dr. John D. Minton, front row, right

(Above)
President Thompson receives an award presented to Western by AIA and AACTE for participation in the AACTE Administrative Internship Program, Feb. 2, '66

Right:
President Thompson receiving
VFW membership card,
March, 1957. Making presentation is Jas. E. Conner, Past
Commander of Lt. Harold R.
Cornwell Post 1298, VFW

Addressing the "Kentuckians" in New York City on May 18, 1967, President Thompson presents Mr. Harold Helm, on behalf of Governor Edward T. Breathitt, with the Distinguished Kentuckian Award

☆☆☆

Mrs. Harry Lee Waterfield mingles with students on visit to the Western campus in October, 1959.

President Thompson chats with visiting consultants in the Professional Organization Workshop--April 29, 1959. Dr. Karl H. Berns, center, of the National Education Association, was the keynote speaker.

Left to right: Dr. Richard Morgan, NEA; Mrs. Beulah Fontaine, KEA; President Thompson; Dr. Berns; J. Marvin Dodson, KEA; Gilbert Burkhead, Hardin County schools superintendent; and Dr. W. R. McNeill, Bowling Green city schools superintendent

President Thompson recognizes Louise Smith, cheerleader from Franklin Elementary School--
December, 1956.

Governor Edward T. Breathitt presents President Thompson with the pen used in the signing of the Act of the Kentucky Legislature bringing university status to Western,
February 26, 1966

Frame houses that were razed in the summer,
1961, to clear the site on which the Academic-Athletic Building--E. A. Diddle Arena was built

Inauguration of Rodes-Helm Lecture Series, April 19, 1962. General Carlos P. Romulo of the Philippines was the speaker. Picture, lower left, shows President and Mrs. Thompson posing with the honorees, Miss Margie Helm and Judge John B. Rodes, and with the speaker

Mr. Harold H. Helm, New York financier and benefactor to Western, delivers the commencement address on May 31, 1968

President Thompson is photographed with Judge John B. Rodes and Miss Margie Helm following commencement on August 4, 1961, at which time he announced the endowment of the Rodes-Helm Lecture Series in honor of Judge Rodes and Miss Helm

Consummation of purchase by Western of first portion of Jonesville Urban Renewal Project, August 10, 1966. Left to right, seated: Archie Daniel, President Thompson, Norman Lewis; standing, Robert G. Cochran, A. B. Ryan, Owen Lawson, Harry Largen, and Judge John Milliken

(Above)
President Thompson thanks
Miss Katherine Peden, Commissioner of Commerce, for an inspirational commencement address, August 4, '69

Will B. Hill, who served Western as field representative from 1928
until his retirement in 1957

Norman Lewis, Urban Renewal Commissioner, signs agreement, relative to Western's purchase of first portion of Jonesville Urban Renewal Project, August 10, 1966. Archie Daniel and Judge John Milliken are standing.

To My Good Friend,
Kelly Thompson, with Respect and Admiration
Jong Keen
8/3/62

To my esteemed friend Kelly
Bill McCormick

◀◀ M ▶▶

To Mr. Kelly Thompson,
an All-American
in every respect.
St. James' Lawrence
May 5, 1962

WALTON JONES

To Dr. Kelly Thompson, with the high personal regard and devotion of his friend:

Carlos P. Romulo

April 24, 1962
The Wedding Towers

C 'BROWNIE' COLQUITT
PHOTOGRAPHER

Kiwanis Kentucky-Tennessee District officers, 1952. President Thompson, Governor, is seated, second from right

Scenes from the "Day of Commemoration and Dedication," October 14, 1967.

Presentations at the luncheon, "Day of Commemoration and Dedication,"
October 14, 1967

Luncheon scenes, "Day of Commemoration and Dedication," October 14, 1967. Governor Breathitt (lower left) is escorted by Miss Joann Clark, "Miss Kentucky," a Western student

A handshake of appreciation and admiration symbolizes the mutual feeling between President Thompson and Board member Douglas Keen--November 21, 1968

Western beauty queens pose with President Thompson on the lawn at the President's Home, spring, 1961. Left to right: Donna Rigsby, Dianne Robinson, Carolyn Turner, President Thompson, and Roberta Johnson

President Thompson and Board member Hugh depict a mutual feeling of both pride and great satisfaction--November 19, 1968

President Thompson congratulates former Board member Bemis Lawrence on the Day of Commemoration and Dedication, October 14, 1967

A climactic day in the history of Western was the signing of the 99-year lease for the Ogden College property. Trustees of the Ogden College Estate, members of the Board of Regents, and Judge John B. Rodes join Dr. Thompson in the President's Office on May 18, 1960, for this far-reaching action. Left to right, seated,

Regent Maxey B. Harlin; Herbert J. Smith, Ogden Regent and Trustee; Wendell P. Butler, Chairman of the Board; President Thompson; Judge John B. Rodes; standing, Alvis Temple, Ogden Trustee; Regent Gerald Edds; Dr. Ward Sumpter, Ogden Trustee; Regent Douglas Keen; Regent Hugh Poland; Regent Bemis Lawrence; and Regent Owen Hammons

President Thompson and Board member Douglas Keen visit following participation in the June 3, 1966 commencement exercises

Mrs. Thompson was presented with roses on the evening of February 13, 1964, when President Thompson was honored by the Muhlenberg County Chapter of the Western Alumni Association on "This Is Your Life" program

HAPPY BIRTHDAY

MR.
PRESIDENT

FROM DOUG
KEEN '69

President Thompson addressing special assembly in the old physical education building gymnasium, spring, 1960

President and Mrs. Thompson pose with President Leonard Rigglesman on the campus of Morris Harvey College, August 21, 1957. President Thompson addressed the graduating class of that institution the following morning.

John Mason Brown, extreme left, is the speaker in the Rodes-Helm Lecture Series on May 5, 1964. He poses with Judge John B. Rodes and Miss Margie Helm, in whose honor the lecture series was established, and President Thompson

President Thompson gets assistance with academic regalia prior to delivering the commencement address at Morris Harvey College on August 22, 1957. He was the recipient of the Doctor of Laws degree on that occasion.

Governor Edward T. Breathitt signs the Act of the Kentucky State Legislature bringing university status to Western and three other state institutions of higher education-- February 26, 1966

DISTRICT DINNER
KENTUCKY & TENNESSEE
ALEXANDRIA HOTEL. JUNE 8, 1948

33^d ANNUAL CONVENTION
KIWANIS INTERNATIONAL
JUNE 6 TO JUNE 10, 1948
LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA

17762-9
WEAVER
LA

President Thompson addresses the Kiwanis
Club of Manila, Philippines on July 17, 1965

President and Mrs. Thompson enjoy a relaxed session on July 14, 1965, with key administrators of the University of the Philippines.
Seated between them is Dr. Paz G. Ramos, who was chosen as the intern in higher education administration from the Philippines

Briefing session of AID and AACTE officials and college presidents selected as administrators of internship programs, February 15, 1965

President Thompson and members of his staff entertain the international students at a reception on April 22, 1969

President Thompson accepts a $2,000 check from A. L. Fust, Sr., Zone Manager, The Sperry and Hutchinson Company, in support of the University Lecture Series, July 10, 1969

The climax of a major financial transaction guaranteeing additional facilities for Western is depicted above. The scene is at the Chemical Bank New York Trust Company, New York City, and shows Mr. Douglas Keen, Vice Chairman of the Board of Regents, accepting a $5 million payment for bonds authorized by the Board--May 21, 1968

Mrs. Thompson and Mrs. Downing join the Council of Academic Deans in the President's Office on September 11, 1969, for the ceremony which symbolized the transfer of authority from President Thompson to incoming President Dero G. Downing President Thompson presents on September 11, 1969, the official seal of the University to Mr. Dero G. Downing, who assumed the presidency on the following day.

